

1 California Criminal Law (3d), Elements

I. CRIMINAL INTENT

- A. General Criminal Intent ("Mens Rea").
  - 1. [§1] Necessity of Mens Rea.
  - 2. [§2] Purpose and Meaning of Concept.
  - 3. [§3] Proof of Criminal Intent.
  - 4. [§4] Motive Distinguished.
- B. Specific Intent.
  - 1. [§5] In General.
  - 2. [§6] Evidence and Instructions.
- C. Other Mental States.
  - 1. [§7] Wilfulness.
  - 2. Knowledge.
    - (a) [§8] In General.
    - (b) [§9] Facts That Must Be Known.
  - 3. [§10] Corruption.
  - 4. [§11] Malice.
  - 5. [§12] Recklessness.
- D. Transferred Intent.
  - 1. Homicide.
    - (a) [§13] In General.
    - (b) [§14] Where Both Intended and Unintended Victim Are Killed.
    - (c) [§15] Where Attempted Murder of Intended Victim Is Charged.
    - (d) [§15A] (New) Where Intended Victim Is Killed and Attempted Murder of Unintended Victim Is Charged.
  - 2. [§16] Assault.
- E. Offenses Not Requiring Criminal Intent.
  - 1. [§17] Public Welfare Offenses.
  - 2. [§18] Other Offenses.
  - 3. [§19] Constitutional Limitations.
- F. [§20] Criminal Negligence in Absence of Intent.

II. CRIMINAL ACT OR OMISSION

- A. [§21] In General.
- B. Negative Act.
  - 1. [§22] General Principles.
  - 2. [§23] Illustrations of Statutory Duty.
- C. Single, Multiple, and Included Offenses.
  - 1. [§24] Nature of Problems.
  - 2. Single Act or Transaction.
    - (a) More Than One Victim or Wrong.
      - (1) [§25] Multiple Offenses.
      - (2) [§26] Single Offense.
    - (b) Violation of More Than One Statute.

- (1) [§27] Multiple Offenses.
  - (2) [§28] Single Offense.
- 3. [§29] Several Acts or Transactions.
- D. [§30] Possession and Transportation.
- E. Solicitation.
  - (1) [§31] Nature of Crime.
  - (2) [§32] General Solicitation Statute.
  - (3) [§33] Solicitation To Commit Murder, Rape, or Sex Offenses.
  - (4) [§34] Miscellaneous Solicitation Statutes.
- F. Causation.
  - 1. [§35] In General.
  - 2. Direct Causes.
    - (a) [§36] Foreseeability Immaterial.
    - (b) [§37] Concurrent Causes.
    - (c) [§38] Preexisting Condition.
  - 3. [§39] Dependent Intervening Causes.
  - 4. Independent Intervening Causes.
    - (a) [§40] Superseding Causes.
    - (b) Foreseeable Causes.
      - (1) [§41] In General.
      - (2) [§42] Killing by Another in Response to Felony.
      - (3) [§43] Negligent Medical Treatment.
      - (4) [§44] Negative Acts (Omissions).

III. THE CORPUS DELICTI

- A. Meaning and Importance of Concept.
  - 1. [§45] What Constitutes Corpus Delicti.
  - 2. [§46] No Proof by Confession or Admission.
  - 3. [§47] Degree of Crime Not an Element.
  - 4. [§48] Identity of Perpetrator Not an Element.
  - 5. [§49] When Rule Is Not Applicable.
- B. Sufficiency of Proof.
  - 1. [§50] Prima Facie Showing.
  - 2. Circumstantial Evidence.
    - (a) [§51] General Rule.
    - (b) [§52] Homicide Without Confession or Admission.

IV. ATTEMPTS

- A. Nature of Attempt.
  - 1. [§53] In General.
  - 2. [§54] Mere Preparation Insufficient.
  - 3. [§55] Solicitation Distinguished.
- B. [§56] Conviction Where Crime Is Completed.
- C. [§57] Conviction Where Preparation Is Punishable.
- D. Sufficiency of Acts.
  - 1. [§58] Test of Proximity to Completed Crime.

2. [§59] Acts Held Sufficient.
3. [§60] Acts Held Insufficient.
- E. Possibility of Completion of Crime.
  1. [§61] General Principles.
  2. [§62] Means Used.
  3. Circumstances.
    - (a) [§63] In General.
    - (b) [§64] Theft.
    - (c) Stolen Property.
      - (1) [§65] In General.
      - (2) [§66] Where Property Was Never Stolen.
- F. [§67] Voluntary Withdrawal.

V. CONSPIRACY

- A. In General.
  1. [§68] Nature, Elements, and Punishment.
  2. [§69] Supporting Theory and Criticism.
  3. [§70] Conspiracy Prosecution Inconsistent With Statute Defining Substantive Offense.
  4. [§71] Conspiracy To Violate Unconstitutional Statute.
  5. [§72] Single Conspiracy or Multiple Conspiracies.
  6. [§73] Impossibility of Completing Substantive Crime.
  7. [§74] Distinct Liability for Substantive Offense.
- B. [§75] Agreement.
- C. Specific Intent.
  1. [§76] In General.
  2. Conspiracy To Commit Murder.
    - (a) [§77] Intent To Kill Required.
    - (b) [§78] Punishable as First Degree Murder.
    - (c) [§78A] (New) Distinction: No Conspiracy To Commit Attempted Murder.
  3. [§79] Knowledge of Illegal Use of Goods or Services.
- D. Two or More Persons.
  1. [§80] Necessity of Multiple Persons.
  2. [§81] Distinction: Alleged Coconspirators Tried Separately.
  3. [§82] Identification and Conviction of Only One Conspirator.
  4. [§83] Husband and Wife.
  5. [§84] Where Crime Itself Requires Two Persons.
- E. Objects of Conspiracy.
  1. [§85] In General.
  2. [§86] Object Must Be Unlawful.
  3. [§87] False Charge, False Suit, and Fraud.
  4. [§88] Injury to Public or Obstruction of Justice.
  5. [§89] Conspiracy To Commit Any Crime.
- F. Overt Act.
  1. [§90] Purpose and Necessity.
  2. [§91] Sufficiency of Acts.
  3. [§92] Voluntary Withdrawal Before or After Overt Act.

G. Liability for Acts of Coconspirators.

1. Relation of Act to Criminal Design.

(a) [§93] Acts Within Scope of Conspiracy.

(b) [§94] Acts Outside Scope of Conspiracy.

2. Joining After Commencement of Conspiracy.

(a) [§95] Party to Existing Conspiracy.

(b) [§96] No Liability for Substantive Offense.

3. [§97] Acts After Termination of Conspiracy.