

1 California Evidence (4th), Hearsay

I. IN GENERAL

- A. [§1] Reasons for Exclusion.
- B. [§2] Evidence Code.
- C. [§3] Federal and Uniform Rules.
- D. Nature and Scope of Rule.
  - 1. [§4] Statement of Rule.
  - 2. [§5] Must Be Offered To Prove Truth.
  - 3. [§6] Multiple Hearsay.
  - 4. [§7] Assertive Conduct.
  - 5. [§8] Other Exclusionary Rules and Impeachment.
  - 6. [§9] Analysis of Hearsay Problem.
  - 7. Illustrations of Inadmissible Hearsay.
    - (a) Self-Serving Statements.
      - (1) [§10] In General.
      - (2) [§11] Statements in Judicial Proceedings.
    - (b) [§12] Reports and Similar Writings.
    - (c) [§13] Court's Interlocutory Order.
    - (d) [§14] Proceedings at Coroner's Inquest.
    - (e) [§15] Invoice, Bill, and Receipt.
    - (f) [§16] Recording of Nonparty's Statements.
    - (g) [§17] Hearsay Introduced by Cross-Examination or Redirect.
- E. Unavailable as a Witness.
  - 1. [§18] In General.
  - 2. Privilege or Disqualification.
    - (a) [§19] Statutory Rule and Distinction.
    - (b) [§20] Privilege Against Self-Incrimination.
    - (c) [§21] Self-Incrimination Privilege Invoked Because of Fear of Perjury Prosecution.
  - 3. [§22] Death, Insanity, or Illness.
  - 4. [§23] Contumacious Witness.
  - 5. [§24] Witness' Fear of Safety.
  - 6. [§25] Witness Killed or Kidnaped.
  - 7. [§26] Elder or Dependent Witness.
  - 8. Absence.
    - (a) [§27] Statutory Rules.
    - (b) [§28] Witness Out of Jurisdiction.
    - (c) [§29] Diligent Search for Witness.
    - (d) [§30] When Search for Witness Should Begin.

II. STATEMENTS NOT WITHIN THE RULE

- A. Words Part of Issue.
  - 1. [§31] General Principle.
  - 2. Illustrations: Civil Cases.
    - (a) [§32] Formation of Contract or Novation.

- (b) [§33] Defamation or Deceit.
    - (c) [§34] Other Examples.
  - 3. [§35] Illustrations: Criminal Cases.
- B. Statements Relevant as Circumstantial Evidence.
  - 1. [§36] In General.
  - 2. Evidence of Mental State of Declarant.
    - (a) [§37] Inference as to Belief, Intent, or Motive.
    - (b) [§38] Civil Cases.
    - (c) [§39] Criminal Cases.
  - 3. Evidence of Mental State of Recipient.
    - (a) [§40] In General.
    - (b) [§41] Knowledge.
    - (c) Belief.
      - (1) [§42] Civil Cases.
      - (2) [§43] Criminal Cases.
    - (d) Good Faith or Reasonableness of Conduct.
      - (1) [§44] Civil Cases.
      - (2) [§45] Criminal Cases.
- C. Nonassertive Conduct.
  - 1. [§46] Nature of Problem.
  - 2. [§47] Uniform Rules and Evidence Code.
  - 3. [§48] Proof of Bookmaking.
  - 4. [§49] Proof of Selling Illegal Drugs.
- D. [§50] Statements Admitted To Provide Context.

III. EXCEPTIONS TO THE RULE

- A. Confession of Defendant.
  - 1. In General.
    - (a) [§51] Nature and Admissibility.
    - (b) Exclusionary Rules.
      - (1) [§52] Theories and Grounds.
      - (2) [§53] Incapacity of Defendant.
      - (3) [§54] Involuntary Confession.
      - (4) [§55] Evidence Obtained Through Involuntary Confession.
      - (5) [§56] Distinction: Voluntary Second Confession.
    - (c) Limiting Rules.
      - (1) [§57] Standing To Challenge Admission of Third Party's Statement.
      - (2) [§58] Voluntary False Confession.
      - (3) Confession of Codefendant.
        - (aa) [§59] In General.
        - (bb) [§60] Editing of Confession.
        - (cc) [§61] Interlocking Confessions.
        - (dd) [§62] Improper Substantive Use Against Defendant.
      - (d) [§63] Confession of Accomplice Offered for Nonhearsay Purpose.
  - 2. Involuntary Confessions.
    - (a) [§64] Physical Abuse or Threat of Abuse.

- (b) Other Threats or Inducements.
    - (1) [§65] General Principle and Distinction.
    - (2) [§66] Confessions Inadmissible.
    - (3) [§67] Confessions Admissible.
  - (c) [§68] Psychological Coercion.
  - (d) Fraud.
    - (1) [§69] Confessions Admissible.
    - (2) [§70] Confessions Inadmissible.
  - (e) Prolonged Questioning.
    - (1) [§71] Questioning Without Coercion.
    - (2) [§72] Questioning as Coercion.
  - (f) Illegal Detention.
    - (1) [§73] In Federal Trials.
    - (2) [§74] In State Trials.
  - (g) [§75] Defendant Kept Incommunicado.
  - (h) Failure To Advise of Miranda Rights.
    - (1) [§76] In General.
    - (2) [§77] Interrogation After Right to Silence Invoked.
    - (3) [§78] Interrogation After Right to Counsel Invoked.
    - (4) Statements Admissible.
      - (aa) [§79] Statement Not Result of Interrogation.
      - (bb) [§80] Second Statement Untainted by Prior Violation.
3. Procedure in Determining Voluntariness.
- (a) [§81] Constitutional Requirements.
  - (b) [§82] Former California Practice.
  - (c) [§83] Final Determination by Judge.
  - (d) [§84] Hearing Without Jury Present.
  - (e) [§85] Evidence and Ruling.
  - (f) [§86] Standard of Proof.
  - (g) [§87] Review by California Courts.
  - (h) [§88] Review by U.S. Supreme Court.
4. [§89] Harmless or Reversible Error.
- B. Admission of Party.
1. In General.
- (a) [§90] Nature and Theory.
  - (b) [§91] Affirmative Evidence.
  - (c) [§92] Classifications and Distinctions.
  - (d) [§93] Declarant's Interest Immaterial.
  - (e) [§94] No Requirement of Personal Knowledge.
  - (f) [§95] Opinion Rule Not Applicable.
  - (g) [§96] Statement Containing Additional Matters.
2. Admissions in Judicial and Administrative Proceedings.
- (a) Pleadings in Civil Cases.
    - (1) [§97] Same Case.
    - (2) [§98] Prior Case.
  - (b) [§99] Guilty Plea in Criminal Case.

- (c) Stipulations and Other Attorneys' Admissions.
  - (1) [§100] Judicial Admissions.
  - (2) [§101] Evidentiary Admissions.
- 3. Adoptive Admissions in Civil Cases.
  - (a) [§102] Nature of Admission.
  - (b) Adoption by Conduct.
    - (1) [§103] In General.
    - (2) [§104] Silence or Evasive Response in Negligence Action.
    - (3) [§105] Ignoring Written Communication.
- 4. Other Admissions by Conduct.
  - (a) Flight, Resistance, or Escape of Accused.
    - (1) [§106] In General.
    - (2) [§107] Flight.
    - (3) [§108] Instruction Where Fleeing Person's Identity Is in Issue.
    - (4) [§109] Attempted Escape From Custody.
  - (b) [§110] False Excuse or Alibi.
  - (c) Attempt To Corrupt Witness or Suppress Evidence.
    - (1) [§111] In General.
    - (2) [§112] Threats.
    - (3) [§113] Attempt by Unauthorized Person.
  - (d) Employer's Precautionary Rules.
    - (1) [§114] Operating Rules of Carrier.
    - (2) [§115] Safety Rules.
    - (3) [§116] Distinction: Labor Code Regulations.
  - (e) [§117] Contradictions in Testimony.
  - (f) [§118] Miscellaneous Examples.
- 5. Vicarious Admissions.
  - (a) Persons Authorized.
    - (1) [§119] Theory and Test of Admissibility.
    - (2) [§120] Independent Proof of Authority.
    - (3) [§121] Scope of Authority.
    - (4) [§122] Statement Admitting Tort Liability.
    - (5) [§123] Statement Admitting Contract Liability.
    - (6) [§124] Other Statements.
    - (7) [§125] Interpreter as Agent.
    - (8) [§126] Distinctions.
  - (b) Declarant Whose Liability Is in Issue.
    - (1) [§127] General Principle.
    - (2) [§128] Exception for Employer's Tort Liability.
  - (c) Declarant Whose Right or Title Is in Issue.
    - (1) [§129] Nature of Rule.
    - (2) [§130] Time of Statements.
  - (d) [§131] Declarant in Action for Injury or Death.
  - (e) Coconspirators.
    - (1) [§132] General Rule.
    - (2) [§133] Independent Proof of Conspiracy.

- (3) [§134] Statement Made During Conspiracy.
  - (4) [§135] Statement Made To Further Objective.
- 6. Excluded Admissions in Criminal Cases.
  - (a) Involuntary Admissions.
    - (1) [§136] Inadmissible as Evidence or Impeachment.
    - (2) [§137] Illustrations.
  - (b) Ineffective or Withdrawn Plea.
    - (1) [§138] Penal Code and Case Law.
    - (2) [§139] Evidence Code and Federal Rules.
  - (c) Silence or Equivocal Reply to Charge of Crime.
    - (1) [§140] Former Law.
    - (2) [§141] Effect of Miranda and Griffin Rules.
  - (d) [§142] Admissions of Codefendant.
- C. Declarations Against Interest.
  - 1. [§143] Modern Expanded Rule.
  - 2. Conditions of Admissibility.
    - (a) [§144] Against Interest.
    - (b) [§145] Declarant Unavailable.
    - (c) [§146] Trustworthiness and Knowledge.
  - 3. Illustrations.
    - (a) [§147] Declarations Against Pecuniary Interest.
    - (b) [§148] Declaration Against Proprietary Interest.
    - (c) Declaration Involving Criminal Liability.
      - (1) [§149] Modern Rule of Admissibility.
      - (2) [§150] Preliminary Fact Determination.
      - (3) [§151] Distinctions.
    - (d) [§152] Declaration Against Social Interest.
    - (e) [§153] Other Declarations.
- D. [§154] Sworn Statement Regarding Gang-Related Crime.
- E. Prior Statements of Witnesses.
  - 1. Prior Inconsistent and Consistent Statements.
    - (a) [§155] Former Law and Code Changes.
    - (b) Prior Inconsistent Statements.
      - (1) [§156] In General.
      - (2) [§157] Rule in Criminal Cases.
      - (3) [§158] Absent Witness.
      - (4) [§159] Forgetful or Amnesiac Witness.
      - (5) [§160] Uncooperative Witness.
    - (c) [§161] Prior Consistent Statements.
  - 2. [§162] Past Recollection Recorded.
  - 3. Prior Identification.
    - (a) [§163] Independent Evidence.
    - (b) [§164] Conditions of Admissibility.
    - (c) [§165] Methods of Identification.
    - (d) [§166] Sufficiency and Weight.
  - 4. Complaint of Victim in Sex Case.

- (a) [§167] In General.
  - (b) [§168] Freshness Requirement Abandoned.
  - (c) [§169] Inadmissibility of Details.
  - (d) [§170] Testimony by Alleged Victim.
- F. [§171] Statement of Victim of Child Abuse or Neglect.
- G. [§172] Child Dependency Hearsay Exception.
- H. Spontaneous Statements.
  - 1. Modern Development of Doctrine.
    - (a) [§173] Theory of Admissibility.
    - (b) [§174] Evidence Code and Federal Rules.
    - (c) [§175] Relation to Other Exceptions.
    - (d) [§176] Effect of Other Rules.
  - 2. [§177] Statement Related to Act, Condition, or Event.
  - 3. Spontaneous Statement During Excitement.
    - (a) [§178] Statement in Response to Questioning.
    - (b) [§179] Importance of Time Element.
    - (c) [§180] Statement Immediately After Event.
    - (d) Statement Some Time Afterward.
      - (1) [§181] Statements Held Admissible.
      - (2) [§182] Statements Held Inadmissible.
- I. Contemporaneous Explanatory Statement (Verbal Act).
  - 1. [§183] Theory of Admissibility.
  - 2. [§184] Illustrations: Statements Accompanying Acts.
  - 3. [§185] Subsequent Statements Inadmissible.
- J. Dying Declaration.
  - 1. [§186] In General.
  - 2. [§187] Evidence Code and Federal Rules.
  - 3. [§188] Instructions to Jury.
  - 4. Conditions of Admissibility.
    - (a) [§189] Relation to Cause of Death.
    - (b) Hope of Life Abandoned.
      - (1) [§190] Test.
      - (2) [§191] Foundation.
      - (3) [§192] Where Victim Chooses To Die.
  - 5. [§193] Other Rules Applicable.
- K. Statements of Mental or Physical State.
  - 1. [§194] In General.
  - 2. Physical Condition.
    - (a) [§195] Declarant's Then Existing Condition.
    - (b) [§196] Declarant's Previously Existing Condition.
    - (c) [§197] Diagnosis or Treatment of Child Abuse.
  - 3. Mental State.
    - (a) General Principles.
      - (1) [§198] Nonhearsay and Admissible Hearsay.
      - (2) Declarant's Then Existing State.
        - (aa) [§199] Present Mental State in Issue.

- (bb) [§200] Continuing Mental State.
  - (cc) [§201] Mental State Not in Issue.
  - (3) [§202] Declarant's Previously Existing State.
  - (4) [§203] Statement of Memory or Belief Inadmissible.
- (b) Illustrations: Belief, Knowledge, or Emotion.
  - (1) [§204] Belief.
  - (2) [§205] Knowledge.
  - (3) Affection or Dislike.
    - (aa) [§206] Husband and Wife.
    - (bb) [§207] Testator.
    - (cc) [§208] Victim.
  - (4) Victim's Fear.
    - (aa) [§209] Admissibility.
    - (bb) [§210] Former Limitations Abolished.
    - (cc) [§211] Adequacy of Limiting Instructions.
- (c) Illustrations: Intent.
  - (1) [§212] Declarations of Grantor or Donor.
  - (2) [§213] Self-Serving Declarations of Defendant.
  - (3) [§214] Other Declarations.
- (d) Intention as Evidence of Future Act.
  - (1) [§215] General Rule of Admissibility.
  - (2) [§216] Intention To Commit Suicide.
  - (3) [§217] Intention To Go to or Leave Place.
  - (4) [§218] Intention To Go With Person.
  - (5) [§219] Threats of Accused or Victim.
- L. [§220] Statements Concerning Physical Abuse.
- M. Testator's Statements Concerning Will.
  - (1) [§221] In General.
  - (2) [§222] Declaration on Making or Revocation.
  - (3) [§223] Declaration on Kind of Will or No Will.
  - (4) [§224] Distinction: Declaration on Contract.
- N. [§225] Decedent's Statement in Action Against Estate.
- O. Business Records.
  - 1. In General.
    - (a) [§226] Common Law.
    - (b) [§227] Uniform Act, Evidence Code, and Federal Rules.
  - 2. [§228] Business, Profession, or Other Activity.
  - 3. What Is Admissible Business Record.
    - (a) [§229] Any Kind of Record.
    - (b) [§230] Computer Records.
    - (c) [§231] Special Reports.
    - (d) [§232] Hospital Records.
    - (e) [§233] Accident Reports Prepared for Litigation.
    - (f) [§234] Absence of Business Entry.
    - (g) [§235] Miscellaneous Inadmissible Entries.
  - 4. [§236] Time of Entry.

5. Sources of Information and Method of Preparation.

- (a) [§237] In General.
- (b) [§238] Hospital Records.
- (c) [§239] Police and Other Accident Reports.
- (d) [§240] Report of Test.
- (e) [§241] Other Records and Reports.

6. Laying Foundation by Authenticating Witness.

- (a) [§242] Custodian or Other Qualified Witness.
- (b) [§243] Laying the Foundation.

P. Official Records and Writings.

- (1) [§244] In General.
- (2) Report of Public Employee.

- (a) [§245] What Constitutes Official Record.
- (b) [§246] Conditions of Admissibility.
- (c) [§247] Relation to Presumption of Official Duty.
- (d) [§248] Public Employee Record Containing Other Employee's Observations.
- (e) [§249] Inadmissible Reports and Statements.

3. Report of Vital Statistics.

- (a) [§250] Admissible Public Records.
- (b) [§251] Knowledge and Opinion Rule.
  - (4) [§252] Federal Finding of Presumed Death.
  - (5) [§253] Federal Report of Missing Person.
  - (6) [§254] Statement of Absence of Public Record.

Q. Former Testimony.

1. In General.

- (a) [§255] Nature and Theory of Exception.
- (b) [§256] Former Law.
- (c) [§257] Evidence Code and Federal Rules.

2. Former Proceeding.

- (a) [§258] Prior Civil Proceeding.
- (b) Prior Criminal Proceeding.

1. [§259] Prior Criminal Trial.

2. [§260] Preliminary Examination.

3. [§261] Testimony of Minor Victim.

- (c) [§262] Deposition in Civil or Criminal Case.
- (d) [§263] Administrative or Arbitration Proceeding.

3. Parties.

- (a) Evidence Against Former Party.
  - (1) [§264] In General.
  - (2) [§265] Evidence Offered Against Opponent.
- (b) [§266] Evidence Against Person Not Former Party.

4. Methods of Proof.

- (a) [§267] In General.
- (b) [§268] Videotape of Preliminary Examination.

5. [§269] Objections.

R. Judgments.

1. Judgment of Felony Conviction.

- (a) [§270] Traditional Rule of Exclusion.
- (b) [§271] Evidence Code and Federal Rules.
- (c) [§272] Scope of Statutory Rule.
  - (2) [§273] Judgment Against Person Entitled to Indemnity.
  - (3) [§274] Judgment Determining Liability of Third Person.

S. Family History.

1. In General.

- (a) [§275] Necessity of Hearsay.
- (b) [§276] Evidence Code and Federal Rules.
- (c) [§277] Facts of Family History.

2. Declarations.

- (a) [§278] Declarant's Own Family History.
- (b) [§279] Declarant Related to Family.
- (c) [§280] Declarant Intimately Associated With Family.
- (d) [§281] Circumstances Indicating Untrustworthiness.

3. Admissible Evidence.

- (a) [§282] Entries in Family Records.
- (b) [§283] Reputation in Family.
- (c) [§284] Community Reputation.
- (d) [§285] Church Records.
- (e) [§286] Marriage, Baptismal, and Similar Certificates.

T. Reputation.

- 1. [§287] Community History.
- 2. [§288] Public Interest in Property.
- 3. [§289] Boundary or Custom Affecting Land.
- 4. [§290] Character.

U. [§291] Statement Concerning Boundary.

V. [§292] Recitals in Dispositive Instruments.

W. [§293] Recitals in Ancient Writings.

X. [§294] Commercial and Similar Lists.

Y. Treatises, Maps, and Charts.

- 1. [§295] Noncontroversial Publications.
- 2. [§296] Medical Texts.

Z. [§297] Affidavits.